Full Bio

In 2008, Kat received a divine calling to full-time ministry, prompting her to become a Certified Christian Counselor. However, God's plan took an unexpected turn, leading Kat into the competitive sport of fishing as an "Angler for Christ" and nationally known as "Bought, Caught & Released." Bought, Caught, and Released means that she was bought by the redeeming blood of Jesus, caught by the golden hook of salvation, and released to spread the transformative message of Jesus Christ.

Since embracing this calling, Kat's journey has been marked by notable features in magazines, television specials, and newspaper articles. She has served as a host on three distinct Christian radio stations—Miracle 89.1FM, Promise 90.7FM, and The Light 92.1FM—where she passionately expresses her love for Jesus Christ daily.

Kat's dynamic engagement extends to prestigious fishing tournaments such as the FLW Professional Tournament Trail, Women's Bassmaster Professional Tournament Trail, LBAA Professional Tournament Trail, H & W Tournament Trail, and the Reeves Marine Tournament Trail. Her influence as a keynote speaker is evident in her participation in Men's, Women's, and Teen Conferences, while her written works, including "The Ramp" and "Out Of The Bayou," further amplify her impactful journey.

Noteworthy mentions in magazines, such as Lady Angler Magazine, and features in "Prime Time" and "Christian Hunter and Angler," underscore Kat's diverse contributions. As the host of the talk show "ARK LA TEX TALENT & TESTIMONY" on Miracle 90.7FM, formerly Promise Family Talk Radio, Kat interviews unique and gifted guests on the airwaves. Additionally, her venture into literature includes the novel, "Out Of The Bayou," A Journey From Abuse to Healing, a heartfelt exploration of her colorful life, encompassing both the most beautiful highlights and the darkest places imaginable to mankind.

Kat's commitment to sharing her journey and faith extends to her podcast "Coffee with Kat," which offers a personal and engaging platform for connecting with others. Her life story serves as an inspiration, portraying a woman who has navigated through various experiences, from the most beautiful highs to the darkest depths, yet, emerged with a profound message of hope and healing.

WWW.KATARNOLDMINISTRIES.COM

In 2008, Kat answered a divine call to full-time ministry, swiftly becoming a Certified Christian Counselor. Yet, her path transformed into the unusual and unexpected "Angler for Christ," known as "Bought, Caught & Released." Bought by redeeming blood, caught by salvation's golden hook, Kat shares the transformative message of Jesus everywhere she goes.

Kat's fun life adventure has taken her to places she never thought she would go and to do things she never thought possible, like having magazine features, TV specials, and newspaper articles written about her life. She also hosts on Christian radio stations, where she passionately expresses love for Jesus. Having engaged in many top-tier national fishing tournaments, Kat is now a keynote speaker at those events and conferences, author of "Out of the Bayou," and the host of a radio talk show "ARK LA TEX TALENT & TESTIMONY."

Notable in magazines like Lady Angler, and featured on Christian radio podcasts, Kat's influence extends to her novel, "Out Of The Bayou." Her commitment to sharing her journey and faith is embodied in her podcast "Coffee with Kat," which offers a powerful platform for connection. Kat's life story, from highs to depths, radiates hope and healing.

A NOTE FROM KAT

*Hey there!
Let's cast our lines, reel in what the
Lord has for us,
and let Him be the Master Angler.*

WHO I SERVE

I team up with organizations, church leaders, and businesses to spread the gospel of Christ, sharing transformative stories and Biblical truths. I'm all about connecting with a diverse crowd, regardless of age, sex, wealth, or background. From local gatherings to national stages, tell me about your group, and we'll bring the Word of the Lord to them in a way they understand. And hey, we don't just spot The Divine in the sacred; we see Him in everything—nature, life events, challenges, and even humor. Get ready for a spiritual revelation with a touch of laughter!

WHAT YOU CAN EXPECT

After you fill out an inquiry request on our website, you can expect a confirmation email from Kat Arnold Ministries to set up an introductory Zoom call with the event leader or church pastor. Once we meet virtually, we can both determine if we are the right fit for your event. After that, we stay connected via email for details, changes, and updates. We do not ask for a speaking fee, but any given is tax-deductible and goes right back into our 501(c)(3) organization. If there is travel, travel expenses, and lodging are requested but not required.
